Gascoigne Halman's name game raises funds for East Cheshire Hospice

Gascoigne Halman joined in the festivities at Prestbury's second and most successful Street Party during December.

Over 1500 people came along to see the stalls which lined the high street and many visited Gascoigne Halman's stall where they enjoyed home made cakes and cookies prepared by the estate agent's team and tried their luck at guessing the name of two teddy bears.

Those taking part ranged from the young to the young at heart, but all thoroughly enjoyed getting into the festive spirit whilst raising money for charity. Gascoigne Halman alone raised over £100. The money will be given to East Cheshire Hospice.
